JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

GRANT AND THE GOLD RING.

Mr. James Fisk, Jr., has published an extraordinary series of statements, which we transferred to our columns the other day. We assume them to be true because, first, they are not in conflict with any of the known facts of the transaction to which they refer; second, they are quite consistent with what we know of the characters of the persons of whom they treat; and, third, they are corroborated by the statement officially promulgated by President Grant, so far as that statement goes.

If they are true, and if Mr. Corbin was, as he has publicly denied being, the real organizer of the recent corner in gold and in the intimate confidence of the persons who admit themselves to have been concerned in that movement, what follows?—Mr Corbin is not known in Wall street so well, nor has he any such financial reputation, as would lead astute operators to give full confidence to his financial ideas, or to defer their own practised judgments, in their own specialty, to his crude theories. Neither is he a capitalist, so far as we know, of such pith and moment that his money was needed by men who had control of any number of millions without him. What was it, then, that induced Messrs. Fisk and Gould and the rest to follow the lead of a man in whose judgment it does not appear that they had any particular reason for confiding, and whose money it does not appear that they stood in need. Simply this: Mr. Corbin is the brother-in-law of the President of the United States. As such, he was supposed to possess the confidence of that officer and to have knowledge of his intentions. The sole value of Mr. Corbin to the bulls lay in their belief, first, that he knew the Executive mind; next, that he was willing to sell that knowledge for a share in the profits of a commercial speculation; and, third, that the President was willing to have him.

This last is the shameful part of the story. The facts which have come out about Mr. Corbin's letter to President Grant, which Messrs. Fisk and Gould were so anxious to have that officer receive that they sent it to him by a special emissary, bring afresh upon Mr. Grant anew the dark suspicion, which the World at first expressed its utter disbelief in, of his complicity in the designs of the gold gamblers. It behooves him to explain what that letter was, and what his answer to it. But, in any case, what a scandal and shame it is that the contrivers of the corner should have, as it is undeniable that they did have, grounds for believing that he might be induced to join their ring.

Since the beginning of President Grant's administration he has been bestowing the patronage of his office with an utter disregard of any considerations of fitness, or of anything else except that the appointees were either his relations or his benefactors. It is not proved that he has ever refused anything to one who had given him anything, or who could establish the remotest relationship to him, except in one instance. That was the case wherein he was applied to by Mr. Fisk, Jr., for a little official and private information in return, it would seem, for a free ride on a Sound steamer.—Put upon anybody else, this would have been a gross insult. But, really, is Mr. Fisk to be considered culpable for not knowing exactly the point at which the Spartan virtue of Grant began? As a brown-stone front is to a seat in the Cabinet, so, Mr. Fisk, Jr., might not unreasonably have worked out his problem in proportion, is a free ride on a steamboat to a little bit of information to impart which not impoverished Grant and made Fisk, Jr., rich indeed. But the gratitude of Grant in this instance alone failed to overcome his sense of what is "fair." He did not suggest, so far as appears, that the price was too small, though it may fairly be supposed that he thought so. He only tried to convince Mr. Fisk, Jr., and succeeded in convincing him, that what he proposed was "not quite fair." He did not treat the proposition as an insult. It would have been absurd if he had. It is no more a dereliction of duty to give a man information which you have no right to impart in return for favors than it is, in return for favors, to put a man in a place which he is unfit to fill. General Grant could not resent such propositions, and he did not resent this one, because his whole official course has laid him open to such propositions. When a President accepts promiscuous pecuniary favors he must know, unless he is a fool, that the giver expects reciprocation. A New York newspaper forbids its reporters to accept free rides on railways or to eat gratuitous viands at hotels, because it knows that a return may be expected from carriers and from publicans. General Grant takes such things although he must know that such returns may be expected. The difference is that a different sense of dignity and decency obtains in the conduct of New York newspapers and in the conduct of General Grant.

When Mr. Grant's gratitude thus unexpectedly and unprecedentedly failed, what was left but to assail his other weakness—his love of his kin? By engaging the cooperation of Mr. Corbin, the "ring" seem to have thought that they could work upon it. By promising profit to Mr. Corbin, they appealed to both the consanguineous and the pecuniary affections of Mr. Grant. It is due to Mr. Grant's character to say that in this instance both appeals failed. But is due to the judgment of the managers of the combination to say that neither ever failed before.

Grant's fate has indeed been melancholy and monitory. He has been scarcely six months in office. Yet during that time he has managed to fill the public service with a horde of flagrant incompetents and to institute the vastest scandalous system of nepotism that was ever known, except in a decayed dynasty. And he has returned more favors for what he must have known were meant for bribes than all our previous Presidents put together. He has made his name a byword by deserting his duty and roaming about the country taking his pleasures publicly and continually. He has let himself out as a cheap and profitable advertisement to every hotel keeper who chose to keep him. He has incurred the unfounded but reasonable suspicion of being in complicity with a set of men whose business is to gamble with the public credit which his business is to uphold. And he has now sunk to furnish the matter of a small sensation to a moribund tuppenny newspaper.—N. Y. World.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 16, 1869.

HENDERSON FAIR.

This Fair has been a grand success. This is the fifth Fair we have attended at Henderson, and we think it decidedly the best, at all events the horses ran faster, the chickens looked gamer, the men more hopeful, and the girls prettier, than we had ever seen them before. We have known a greater variety of articles on exhibition—but we have never known a greater flow of good spirit and hospitality exhibited. There were three hundred and sixty-two articles exhibited.

Wednesday up two o'clock was spent in a general parade of draught horses, mules, Jack and Jennets.

At two, a pacing match came off for a silver cup.

Three entries by Col. Simon G. Hayes.—S. R. Hunt and Joseph Kittal. Col. Hays's Daredevil won the race, time 1.58, distance three quarters of a mile.

At three, a trot for a $50 premium came off. Dr. Young's bay horse Bob Lee, won the race. On Thursday no horse could be found to trot against Bob Lee.

At 4 o'clock there was a trial of speed for a premium of $75 twice around the track.

After a rest of forty minutes a race was made up between the same horses. Col. Green entered his saddle horse, a thorough breed. The Sorrel was winner again, Tarriver filly second, and the saddle horse third.

At night Tableaux were beautifully presented and Charades gracefully acted by lovely girls, this we got from the boys who in ecstacy, told us so next morning. Next time we shall see for ourselves and not leave it for others to tell of.

Thursday was the grand day, we had trotting, pacing running and speaking.

At 10 o'clock we had a pacing match, three entries. At 2 o'clock we were to have had a trot, but no one would go against Bob Lee.

At 4 o'clock a race between two boys, one belonging to Mr. Davis, the other known as the Christmas mare, we did not learn who entered her. Mr. Davis won the race.

Mr. Davis exhibited quite a number of fine horses, Leme, a yearling we thought the best of his stable, and the finest year old we ever saw. Col. Hamlin, of Northampton, had a fine Exchequer Stallion and a bay filly, of the same family. The filly would have been entered against Mr. Davis' colts, but her foot was caught in the cars and slightly injured.

We hope the Colonel will bring his horses to the State Fair next week. If President Battle, the Executive Committee and Brother Smith especially, who has taken such a lively interest in everything pertaining to the Fair, shall rule that trials of speed should be confined to pacing and trotting, we can adjourn to the big road where the young Pauls, Exchequers and Bonnes, who are not trained to pace or trot, can go at such rates as become their ancestors, suits their blood and breeding. Col. J. Thomas Goode, of Mecklenburg, Va. exhibited young Financier by Boston. Financier was tried by John Minor Botts, and has twice carried off the premiums, awarded to thorough-bred Stallions, at the Border Agricultural Fairs, in Danville. The Colonel thinks none the more of his horse because John Minor Botts raised him. He is the great grandson of Thomas Goode, whose horse Capt. Belcher rode 56 years ago.

Baldy Cupehart, exhibited two beautiful fillies, called in honor of two beautiful ladies of our city. Col. Greene, a fine pair of carriage horses. We did not see the Morgan quarter horse, belonging to Mr. Staples of Halifax, except in his stable. He is a fine specimen of the Morgan. But enough of horses unless all our readers were Grant men.

Westbrook, of Ridgeway, exhibited 208 varieties of fruit trees, and twenty of strawberry vines.

H. R. Hunter, Jr., 40 varieties of fine apples.

John J. Bailey, fine specimens of white Haxall wheat.

Dr. Blacknell, fine Ayrshire bull and heifers.

The young Yanceys, fine game chickens.

Dr. Turner, of Henderson, two fine hogs.

Col. Wyatt, of the Sparkling Catawba, exhibited a patent gate, made without hinges or latch, very cheap and very good. If it were not for the force of habit and scarcity of money, the Colonel's gates would break down draw bars and do away with fence climbing in ninety days.

Scott was on hand with twenty five specimens of Rock Island goods. How much better young men, who wore the grey, would look in Rock Island goods, instead of Yankee black and blue.

Jack Odenhammer, of Oxford, exhibited as good catsup as is made.

Jack Mowatt, of Raleigh, fine boots and shoes.

The Governor came on Thursday, with the Treasurer, Superintendent of Public Instruction, Col. W. D. Jones, and other friends. The State Agricultural Society was represented by their President, Kemp P. Battle, Col. Huck, Col. Little, and others.

Of the Clergy, was Rev. H. T. Hudson, J. B. Hobbitt, Peter H. Erwin, J. Brinton Smith, J. L. Micheux, John Tillett and W. H. Gibbons.

We have not space to mention the many personal friends we met from Granville, Warren, Franklin and Halifax.

We have omitted, but not forgotten the ladies and Floral Hall, after giving Mrs. Wilson the premium, for want of room, we must speak of them not singly, but in the aggregate.

The matrons exhibited pretty daughters, quilts, spreads, blankets, sweetmeats, fruits, wines and every thing that is grown in this once blessed land. Their daughters all exhibited the beauty, grace and gentleness which make Southern women so dear to Southern men.

Editor's in attendance were Dr. Pleasants and Dr. Schoolfield, of the Petersburg Index; Major Englehard of the Wilmington Journal; Dr. T. B. Kingsbury; Rev. James B. Hobbitt, Episcopal Methodist; Harris, of the Henderson Index, and Stone, of the Roanoke News.

Judge Gilliam, Judge Barnes and Judge Watts, represented the Judiciary. Of the Bar was Col. Edwards, Col. Hargrove, T. Brown Venable, Willis Jenkins, Gen. Ransom, Hon. D. M. Barringer, William Young and Mr. Jones of Henderson.

The Railroads were well represented, by Col. Fremont, Dr. Hawkins, Major Smith and Capt. Andrews.

The medical fraternity was also well represented in the persons of Dr's Hicks, Young, Blacknall, Cheatham, Grissom, Gee, Peace, Foot and others.

Three hundred and sixty two articles were exhibited, Gen'l Ransom's speech on Thursday, made 363. This last named, was best of all. Those who were charmed with the General's eloquent speech, would not like to see it marred by an effort on our part to repeat it, so we will not attempt it; but say to those who did not hear it, you missed a rich intellectual treat, by missing the Henderson Fair.

CAPTAIN BELCHER INTERVIEWED AT THE HENDERSON FAIR.

On Wednesday, we interviewed Capt John Belcher of Richmond, Va. who is the oldest and most distinguished man of the turf on the continent. In this age of turf and political degeneracy, it may be proper to add, that for 57 years Capt. Belcher has had to do with the turf, and no charge or even suspicion of foul riding, foul running, or jockeying, was ever made against him.—The Captain is in good health and in his 73d year, and exhibited fine stock at the Henderson Fair.

On Wednesday morning at sun-up we entered his room in Simon Kittrell's Hotel, to interview him in bed. We knew the Captain could lay down and tell more about horses, from sun-up to breakfast than President Grant could learn in a lifetime, or tell in an age.

The President has seen the racing at Long Island, Saratoga and Jerome Park, but he never saw Sir Archy, Sir Charles, Virginian, Boston, Henry and Eclipse. He never associated on the turf with Randolph, Goode, Johnson, Doswell, Towns, Belcher, Hampton, Singleton, Davy, Mears, Amis, or Lem Long. When politicians interview the President, he "talks horse," yet nothing has been extorted from him of his torical interest to the turf.

When we entered the Captain's room we announced our purpose to interview him, notwithstanding the presence of Mr. Peter R. Davis. We began by asking, "how old are you Captain, and how long have you been connected with the turf?"

Answer—I was born in Chesterfield, October 23, 1796. The first thing I remember was the death of Washington, which occurred the 14th of December, 1799, all the houses were draped in mourning and it made an impression upon me though I was only three years old.

Question—Give me the names of some of the most distinguished men of the turf, during your connection with it?

Answer—My first appearance on the turf was in 1812, at Spring Hill. I rode Massena, a horse of Thomas Goode's, the great grand father of Col. Thomas Goode, who has horses here on exhibition. I went into the service of Col. Wm. R. Johnston, in 1815, and remained with him, in close intimacy, until his death, in February, 1849.

In North Carolina, I knew Wm. B. Mears, Allen Davy, Lemuel Long, Jack Amis, William Towns, Wm. West, of Halifax, Gen. Thomas Jefferson Green, Gen. Hawkins and his old man Bob.

In South Carolina, Col. Wade Hampton, father of the present Wade Hampton, Col. Singleton, Gov. James Richardson, John R. Span, and others.

In Virginia, Col. Wm. R. Johnston, James I. Harrison, Burwell Wilkes, James Seldon, Dr. John Minge, William Towns, John Minor Botts, Major Doswell, O. P. Hare and many others.

Question—Who of all these men was the best Judge of horse flesh?

Answer—Johnston, by all odds, though none of them were deficient, and all quick to point out the good parts of a racer.

Question—Did you ever see John Randolph, of Roanoke, on the turf?

Answer—Yes, the first time, at New Market, in 1821. He drove four splendid thorough-breds to a fine carriage, and had thirteen mares for Sir Archy. He went from New Market to Northhampton, N. C., with his thirteen mares, where Sir Archy and his master, Jack Amis, lived, swearing "he would raise a good crop this year."

Question—Did Randolph raise any fine horses?

Answer—Yes, Janus, Rinaldo, Roanoke, Isabella and many others. He was fond of English horses and everything English, and, I think, even the English form of government. While at New Market, he bought the Philadelphia mare, at Dunlops sale. In those days Dunlop had frequent sales of imported and blooded stock at auction. Old Billy Haxhall was crying the sale. When Mr. Randolph would bid, Haxhall, the crier, would bid over him. When the Philadelphia mare had gone up to high figures, Mr. Randolph cried out, "Haxhall, d—d if I like to bid against the crier," who are you bidding for?

Haxhall—"I am bidding to read a mare to Archy."

Randolph—"Come, Haxhall, none of your d—d Yankee answers to me. Who are you bidding for?"

Philadelphia was bid off by Haxhall, but Mr. Randolph took her at his bid and marched off with fourteen mares to Sir Archy.

In 1825 I saw Mr. Randolph at Tree Hill races. Everybody remarked upon his good humor and high flow of spirits. Just as the humor struck him and he was a mind to, he could be the most agreeable and entertaining, or the most disagreeable man in the world. He loved horses and dogs more than Grant, and delighted to talk about them. He could give you the full pedigree of any horse in the stud book. Gracchus, was one of his favorites, and he delighted to talk about him.

The last time I saw him was just before he died, he was on his way to England. He had recently bought Spring Hill. I ventured to tell him he paid too much for it. He said he did not mind the price; he was going to England where his health would soon be restored, and when that was done, he could stand high prices. He was not then able to walk. Juba and other servants carried him in a large arm-chair. He bought a basket of oranges on the boat, and every lady or child that passed, he invited to take one, and engaged them in agreeable conversation. There were many ladies and children on the boat and they all left in love with John Randolph of Roanoke.

The last I ever saw or heard of Mr. Randolph was at Frenchtown, the Captain of the boat approached and said, "Mr. Randolph I understand you will to lay over here to-night to rest?" You understand a d—n lie Sir, do you think I would rest in such a d—n dirty place, if I could help it.

Mr. Randolph was much attached to Col. Wm. R. Johnston, and very fond of his company.

Question.—What about the great race between Henry and Eclipse, how was it brought about?

Answer.—At the Washington races, John C. Skinner of New York, offered to run Eclipse against any horse, South of Mason's and Dixon's line for 10,000 dollars. Col. Wm. R. Johnston, picked up the glove thus thrown down and John Richards was the horse first selected to run against Eclipse. John Richards was by Sir Archy, out of a Rutter mare, he was owned by Lem. Long, but raised by Jack Amis. John, falling lame, Sir Henry was selected to run for the South.

In trial races, John Richards, could beat Henry, and no doubt the South would have won the race if John could have run. The race took place on the 23rd day of May 1823. It was well contested and it was thought by some that, if Col. Johnston had been on the track to direct the rider, Henry would have won the race. The Colonel, the night before ate oysters, and had a severe cholic. John Randolph, who witnessed the race, was heard swearing to the top of his cracked voice, "lobsters beat the South, by G—d lobsters beat the South."

There were 50,000 people at the race. Martin Van Buren and the great preacher, Rev. Hooper Cumming, who was afterwards charged with throwing his wife over, Passaic falls, were among the spectators.

Henry won the first heat and led Eclipse for two miles of the second heat. When Eclipse caught, passed and beat him, each leading six miles of the twelve that were run.

Question—Which is the best horse you ever raised?

Answer—Redeye.

Question—Give me his pedigree and performances?

Answer—Redeye was by Boston, out of an imported Priam Mare. He ran 11 four mile races and won them all. In his first race at Broad Rock, when three years old, he was beaten by Gold Pin. Financier beat him in a two mile race at New Market. I ran him 43 races, thirty three of which he won, running 265 miles in all.—He afterwards, beat every horse, that had beaten him, I sold him for $2,000, when he was 21 years of age. Redeye is still living, and was 23 last spring, and is owned by a gentleman, who lives near Chicago.

Question—Which are the best horses you trained?

Answer—Timoleon, Henry, Sir Archy, Virginian, Boston, Sir Charles, Contention, John Richards, Director, full brother of Virginian and a faster horse, he went blind very early, Atalanta and Lady Clifton.

Question—Which is the best horse you ever trained?

Answer—I can't say, it lies between Timoleon, Virginian and Redeye.

Question—Who raised the best horses?

Answer—I can hardly say, all the horses that win races to this day, trace back to Diomede, who died in 1808 at Thos. Goodes; before I came to the turf. Imported Citizen, also died at Goode's. The Goode's raised many fine horses.

Timoleon, by Sir Archy, was raised by Ben Jones of Greenville. Sir Archy was raised by Col. John Taylor of Mt. Airy, and Archy Randolph. They sold him to Col. Wm. R. Johnston at three years old, for $2,000. Johnston sold him to Allen Davy, son of Gov. Davy, and he sold him to Jack Amis for $5,000. Sir Archy was called after Archy Randolph. Jack Amis sued his father's estate for his interest in Sir Archy and recovered $25,000 dollars of the Executor. Lem. Long raised Sir Henry, that ran against Eclipse. Boston, by Timoleon, was raised by John Wickham, of the Burr trial, who sold him to Nat Rieves, at 2 years old for $800, who sold him to James Long of Washington City, for $12,500.

Virginian was raised by Capt. James J. Harrison, of Brunswick, who sold him to John C. Goode for $4,000. He (Virginian) was a light or dappled bay, a beautiful and perfect horse, though he had a heavy head.

Sir Archy was a horse of powerful bone and muscle, a dark brown, of coarse appearance.

Such was our interview with Capt. Belcher. We hope he may live long enough to raise another Redeye.

The breakfast bell rang and the interview closed, much to the regret of Peter Davis, who enjoyed it as Daniel Boone would a deer hunt or a fox chase.

GLASS SPECTACLES,

Superior to any other in use—constructed in accordance with the science and philosophy of nature, in the peculiar form of

A CONCAVE CONVEX ELLIPSIS,

Admirably adapted to the organs of sight, and perfectly natural to the eye, affording altogether the best artificial help to the human vision ever invented. Used only by

MORRIS BERNHARDT,

SPECTACLE & OPTICAL MANUFACTURER.

THE ADVANTAGES of these Spectacles over all others are:

1. They can be worn with perfect ease for any length of time at one sitting, giving astonishing clearness of vision, by candle or any other artificial light, comfort to the spectacle-wearer hitherto unknown.

2. How to select Glasses. It requires professional guidance even when a good article is offered. Dr. Bernhardt not only has the best Glasses that can be found in the market, but carefully examines the eyes of his patients, and gives indispensable advice as to the proper selection of them.

3. When the eyes ache or pain through the action of a bright light, such as is reflected from the snow, sunny weather, white paper, and in reading, writing or sewing, or vivid colored bodies; these lenses, by softening the rays effect a most agreeable sensation and give great relief.

4. These spectacles are scientific ally adjusted to every case of defective sight with unerring accuracy, whether arising from age, strain, over work, or premature decay, by Dr Bernhardt on a new and exact principle, entirely his own, which has seldom failed to be correct.

5. After several years of public practice, adjusting spectacles to patients under every aspect of defective vision, as well as experience in an extensive, long established business in his Optical Stores, both here and in Europe, Dr. Bernhardt considers it a sufficient guarantee of his ability to supply such glasses as are best calculated for the assistance of imperfect sight.

6. M. Bernhardt, to signalize himself from the host of pretenders in his possession, with pride submits for inspection, copies of testimonials he has received from medical gentlemen of the most unquestionable respectability and talent in America; also a number of certificates from well known gentlemen of distinction who have used his spectacles—the originals of all which he will be happy to show to those who may request it. The use of any of the following names or certificates hereunto affixed, without an actual possession of the same, would be a forgery, a capital offence, punishable by State imprisonment.

Testimony of Recommendations from Medical Gentlemen, Professors of the highest Opthalmic talent in Raleigh, N. C., and in the Union.

Raleigh, Aug 24, 1869.

I have carefully examined Prof. Bernhardt's Spectacles, and take great pleasure in recommending him to those who, having defective vision, can be made to see more clearly and distinctly by the use of glasses. He has wonderful skill in this respect. The pair he has supplied me with are of Brazilian Pebble, of most superior quality and excellent finish. They enable me to see how to read, or write, at the ordinary focal distance, as clearly and distinctly as I did twenty years ago. I very cheerfully bear testimony both to the Professor's skill and to the wonderful properties of his glasses.

CHAS. E. JOHNSON, M. D.

Raleigh, N. C., Aug. 24, 1869.

I take great pleasure in saying that the Glasses I have obtained (and am now using) from Dr. M. Bernhart are to me a source of greater comfort than any I have previously used; my own experience fully sustaining the testimonials of excellence and commendation which he has received from gentlemen of science, and high character, in various parts of our country.

WM. G. HILL, M. D.

Raleigh, N. C., Aug 24, 1869.

I take pleasure in stating that I have examined the glasses of M. Bernhardt, Oculist and Optician, and think they are of the best material, and constructed on scientific principles. I would advise those in need of glasses to call on him.

Very respectfully,
F. J. HAYWOOD, M. D.

Raleigh, Aug. 24, 1869.

Doctor Bernhardt called at my house and exhibited to me his fine assortment of Australian Crystal Glasses, which are of a very superior quality and workmanship. I take pleasure in saying that the glasses I have obtained from Professor Bernhardt are to me a source of greater comfort than any I have previously worn and cheerfully commend them to those who may be in need of glasses.

W. H McKEE, M. D.

Raleigh, Aug 25, 1869.

After an attentive examination of the various glasses in the possession of Dr. M. Bernhardt, accompanied with his explanation of his mode of preparing and adjusting them, it is with great pleasure I state my belief of his great skill, and of the benefit which those needing glasses must derive from his assistance.

R. S. MASON, D. D.,
Pastor Prot. Episcopal Church.

Raleigh, Aug. 25, 1869.

Dr. M. Bernhardt, Oculist and Optician, has fitted me with a pair of Spectacles superior to any article of the kind I ever had before. The material is Australian Crystal, the quality of which renders vision very clear and distinct, and enables me to read and write with as much ease as I did ten or twelve years ago. His assortment of glasses is most complete and the finish apparently perfect. I take great pleasure in recommending him to all who need their sight improved.

DRURY LACY, D. D.,
Late Pres't. of Davidson College, N. C.

Raleigh, Aug 26, 1869.

It gives me pleasure to bear witness to the extraordinary virtue and excellence of the glasses prepared and furnished by Prof. Bernhardt. To those who need artificial aid for their vision he will be of the highest service.

J. M. ATKINSON,
Pastor of the Presbyterian Church.

State of North Carolina,
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
Raleigh, March 26, 1866.

I have examined a large number of the glasses of Prof. M. Bernhardt, and with pleasure certify to their superior excellence. I wear a pair of them and see as perfectly as I could in my youth. They are the best I ever used, and I therefore heartily recommend him to the patronage of the public.

JONATHAN WORTH,
Governor of North Carolina.

State of South Carolina,
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
Columbia, June 19th, 1866.

Sir: I have made a full and satisfactory trial of the Spectacles procured from you, and I have the pleasure to say that the glasses are better adapted to my eyes than any I have ever used. The facility with which you fitted the glasses to my eyes, furnished me conclusive evidence of your scientific skill in optics and your thorough experience as an Oculist.

Your attainments in your profession entitle you to the confidence, patronage and gratitude of the public. I have the honor to be,

Very respectfully yours,
JAMES L. ORR,
Governor of South Carolina.

Prof. MORRIS BERNHARDT, Charleston, S. C.

Wilmington, March 31, 1866.

I have examined a number of Professor Bernhardt's Glasses and am now using a pair of them, and take pleasure in testifying that they enable me to see better than any others that I have used, while in his collection there seem to be some adapted to remedy any kind of defect in vision.

THOMAS ATKINSON,
Bishop of North Carolina.

Nashville, April 27, 1867.

The difference between Dr Bernhardt and most Opticians is, according to my observation, that while they pretend to more than they know, he knows more of his business than he professes.

W. K. BOWLING, M. D.

Testimonials similar to the above may be seen at Dr. Bernhardt's office, from the most reliable and well-known gentlemen of the United States, among whom are:

HORATIO SEYMOUR, Governor of New York.

THOSE OF OUR friends from abroad, who are in arrears at this office, will have an excellent opportunity whilst attending the Fair, to settle their bills. Those who do not come themselves, can commission their friends to attend to the matter for them.

STATE FAIR.—As the time for the Fair approaches the evidences of a fine exhibition of Stock, Agricultural products, Manufacturers &c. increase. The Secretary is receiving by every mail letters, containing lists of articles to be entered, we predict a large concourse of visitors from all parts of the State, and our prediction is based upon the expressed purpose of members to be present. All our citizens, whose homes will not be filled with friends, should receive visitors for a compensation. If we hope to have our State Fair succeed this year, and in future years, the good people of Raleigh must interest themselves to provide accommodations for those who come from a distance, the assurance that all who might come would find a place to sleep, would in itself do much to increase the number of visitors. Uncertainty on this point must keep many away, and the experience of those who come to this Fair, will have an effect upon the attendance at future Fairs.

We learn that the Executive Committee are canvassing the city to ascertain who will accommodate visitors, and that they propose to keep a list of such persons at the Office of the Society, (second story Holleman's new building, near the market,) for the convenience of visitors.

Dr. Morris Bernhardt, the celebrated Optician, has returned to the city and can be found at his old quarters, at the Yarborough House.

THE HANDSOME residence which Dr. J. H. Crawford, is erecting on the Hillsboro road just beyond St. Mary's, is almost completed. It presents quite an imposing appearance, and will prove quite an ornament to the neighborhood.

WE ARE glad to see that the authorities have placed the side walk by the Executive Mansion in a passable condition. This improvement was much needed, and its accomplishment, gives great satisfaction to the residents of that section of the city.

CARPET BAGGERY IN THE SUPERLATIVE. In the case of Buckalan ex. M. S. Littlefield before the Superior Court of Wake, on Tuesday, it appeared that M. S. Littlefield, State Printer of North Carolina, was a NON-RESIDENT OF THE STATE!

This we would call carpet bagism in the superlative degree. All the carpet baggers who have squatted down on the State get offices.

LUDUS MUNDI OR GEOGRAPHICAL GAME.—This is a remarkable invention, and cannot fail to prove very interesting and very valuable to families and schools. The map of the United States or any other map, may be used for the purpose. The game is played on the surface with blocks moved back and forth according to rule, the basis of counting being population, or any other statistics desired to be fixed on the mind. Ludus Mundi is easily learned, perfectly innocent, and imparts a vast deal of valuable information. Prices $2 and $3.

SOME days ago the law office of Col. Jos Masten at Winston, was robbed of some valuable papers.

REV. D. R. BRUTON, Principal of the Thomasville Female College, invented a rat trap, which he has sold for $11,000. So says the Western Sentinel.

HIGHWAY ROBBERY.—We learn, says the Greensboro Patriot, that Mr. Thos. Moore, a worthy citizen from the Northern part of Guilford county, was robbed last Saturday night of about $40.00. We have not heard the particulars of the affair, but learn it occurred near Paisley's Bridge, and that the parties were negroes.

A. J. MCDONALD, a highly respectable citizen of Summerville, Harnett, Co., was instantly killed on Tuesday last by an accidental discharge of his gun.

There will be a special Court, held to Robeson county on Monday Nov. 29th.

A newspaper is soon to be established at Lumberton by Rev. W. S. McDiarmid.

THE LOUISIANA EQUITABLE LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY OF NEW ORLEANS.—This is one of the very best companies in the country. It has the endorsement of Bishop Wilmer, Gens. Beauregard, Hood, Harry Hays and the leading men of New Orleans. General Beauregard says: "Its Officers and Directors have been selected from our most reliable and intelligent citizens.

Instead of sending $40,000,000 annually North, our citizens can find better companies at home.

THE CAROLINA FARMER.—The October number of this valuable work is on our table, filled with articles of interest and profit to the farmer. This number closes the first volume, and is the last of the monthly series. On the fourth of November the first number of the Weekly will appear; and in its new form it will no doubt prove much more acceptable to its many readers. It will contain eight pages of five columns each; and in addition to a largely-increased amount of agricultural matter, will give miscellaneous, family reading, market reports and the general news of the day.—The subscription price ($2.00 per year) will not be changed. Address, Wm. H. Bernard, Editor and Proprietor, Wilmington, N. C.

DEMOREST'S MONTHLY.—This and a sewing machine is beginning to be considered indispensable by young housekeepers and ladies generally; but the MONTHLY must be had, whether the sewing machine is or not. One of the great things in its favor is, that the gentlemen like it. They find it sensible instead of frivolous, full of practical information and useful ideas, which save young and inexperienced wives and mothers any amount of trouble and expense. The illustrations and patterns, the music and other departments, are each worth the cost, and we advise husbands who want to do a really good thing for their wives, themselves, and the family generally, to send $3 00 to 838 Broadway, N. Y., immediately.

DEMOREST'S YOUNG AMERICA.—The November number of this popular little publication has just reached us, and is decidedly the best number that has been issued.—Opening the bright cover, out popped a beautiful bird, a supplement to the Magazine, worth its cost. The departments for children, the "Little Housekeeper" and the "Young Farmer" are excellent. In fact, the entire contents are just such as are calculated to please and instruct the juveniles. It is the best investment for $1 50 that we know of. Published at 838 Broadway, N. Y.

At a meeting of the Wilmington Chamber of Commerce, on Thursday last, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

President—Dr. W. W. Harriss.
First Vice President—Col. J. W. Atkinson.
Second Vice President—O. G. Parsley, Jr.
Secretary and Treasurer—Col. Roger Moore.
Chairman Arbitration Committee—D. G. Worth.
Chairman Committee of Appeals—Col. W. L. DeRosset.

Capt. J. W. Hinson was elected a member of the Arbitration Committee, vice C. Heelen Jones retired.

On Thursday last a negro entered the store of Walter Price, Fayetteville, and stole two silver watches. A detective succeeded in arresting the thief soon afterwards and the property was recovered.

Lewis Parker (colored) was arrested on Friday last and brought to town, charged with stealing one and a half barrels of corn from Mr. Jacob Parker. Lewis was bound over to Court. Tom Parker, who detected Lewis in the theft, then complained of sundry threats made by Lewis, and requested that he (Lewis) be made to keep the peace against himself and the balance of mankind, whereupon Lewis failing to give a bond to that effect, was lodged in the Calaboose.

On Sunday morning a delegation of Lewis' flock arrived and presented themselves before the J. P. who incarcerated him stating that he was a Minister and had an appointment to preach on that day, pledging their worldly goods for his good behaviour; whereupon the sable apostle was released and doubtless dilated extensively on the eighth commandment.—Living Present, (Warrenton, N. C.)

THE UTLEY
COTTON PRESS.

A NEW combination of power, whereby all friction is overcome. The simplicity, economy and durability of this PRESS astonishes all who see it, and the more so that a power so simple should so long have been unappreciated. With this Press, two men can do all the packing or pressing of a 500 pound bale inside of eight minutes: and it can be readily taken down and transported, as it is simple and light. We can supply these Presses cheaper than any yet offered to the Planter. Will send circulars to any desiring and we would advise all persons wanting presses to withhold buying until they examine this.

THE PRESSES are now being manufactured at the SASH AND BLIND FACTORY OF THOS H. BRIGGS. All are assured that as between this and any other there is no argument as to its merits over all others. With the irons, any ordinary workman can put them up. The patentee is here for a few days, and will take pleasure in explaining its merits.

Address T. H. BRIGGS,

"A Slight Cold," Coughs.—Few are aware of the importance of checking a cough or "SLIGHT COLD," in its first stage; that which in the beginning would yield to a mild remedy, if neglected, soon attacks the lungs. "Brown's Bronchial Troches" give sure and almost immediate relief. "THE TROCHES" have proved their efficacy by a test of many years, and have received testimonials from eminent men who have used them.

It has an IMPORTANT NEW FEATURE that has been copy-righted. According to this plan the rates are MUCH LOWER than in any other Company in the world.

Its ratio of Mortality is low. Its rates are very low. Its expenses are very low. Its dividends are large.

It insured more lives in the City of New York in 1868, than any other Company, except one. It insured more Policies in the United States than any other save one. It insured more lives in Canada than any other Company, British or American.

See what the HIGHEST INSURANCE AUTHORITY in this country says. In the June number of the Insurance Times, of New York, the following opinion was expressed:

"If there is any great benefit in mutual association, any great advantage to be derived from scientific organization and a chartered source, tending to mitigate the sufferings, lessen the privations, and add to the peace, security, and happiness of humanity, we are prepared to show that these blessings flow, in all their fullness and purity, from this excellent, powerful, and flourishing Company, the ÆTNA LIFE, of Hartford."

"No institution has brought more prompt, full, and grateful relief to the hearths of the bereaved and desolate, and none has been more uniformly distinguished for the enterprise, wisdom, and equitable liberality with which it has fulfilled the purposes of its formation."

"Its success has been almost unbounded and beyond all precedent. Eight years ago in 1861, it issued only 580 policies, received an income of seventy-eight thousand dollars, and possessed net assets summing up to something over two hundred and eighty-one thousand dollars; but last year, 1868, it granted 13 597 new policies, more than any other Company except the Mutual Life; received an income exceeding six million dollars, and had amassed solid, securely and profitably invested nett assets amounting to over Ten Million Three hundred and Fifty Thousand Dollars. And this wonderful ratio of growth has been sustained in 1869."

SCHOOL BOOKS.

UNIFORM SYSTEM OF
TEXT-BOOKS
FOR NORTH CAROLINA.

Office Publishers' Sup't of Introduction,
RALEIGH, N. C., Sept. 21, 1869.

A DEPOSITORY has been established at Raleigh, in charge of Mr. Alfred Williams, for the following books, which were adopted Aug. 9th, 1869, by the State Board of North Carolina for uniform use in the Public Schools:

PARKER & WATSON'S NATIONAL PRIMER.
PARKER & WATSON'S NATIONAL SPELLERS.
PARKER & WATSON'S NATIONAL READERS.
DAVIES' ARITHMETICS.
MONTEITH & MCNALLY'S GEOGRAPHIES.
MONTEITH'S YOUTH'S HISTORY OF THE U. S.
BEER'S SYSTEM OF PENMANSHIP.

THE NEW DESCRIPTIVE GEOGRAPHY OF NORTH CAROLINA will be ready about the middle of October next. The maps, &c., are now being engraved as rapidly as possible. This work will be furnished with Monteith & McNally's Series, without extra charge.

PROF. JEROME ALLEN'S COMPLETE SYSTEM OF MAP DRAWING will also be furnished to the Public schools with Monteith & McNally's Series, without extra charge.

The books will be supplied at exceedingly low rates to the Public Schools in the state.

Similar terms will be made accessible to private schools adopting the above named books uniformly.

Pupils attending the Public Schools will, in accordance with the State contract, be furnished with new copies of Monteith & McNally's Geographies and Davies' Arithmetics in exchange for old copies of Cornell's Geographies and Quackenbos' Arithmetics, which they may possess.

Books will be supplied, carefully packed and shipped, by ALFRED WILLIAMS,
Depositary, Raleigh, N. C.

Teachers and Educators generally are respectfully invited to correspond with
C. W. LAMBETH,
Agent for the Publishers
and Sup't of Introduction.

From Dr. WM. B. HARRELL, Prin. High School, Snow Hill, N. C.:

SNOW HILL, N. C.

"I am much pleased with both the spellers and all the readers; and as to the series of Geographies by Monteith & McNally, I have long used no others when these could be obtained.

From Rev. ALBERT SMEDES, D. D., Rector of St. Mary's School, Raleigh, N. C.

RALEIGH, N. C.

I have examined the Geographies - Monteith's [No. 4] and McNally's [No. 5] and find excellencies in both, which eminently entitle them to a wide circulation. It is my purpose to introduce Monteith's [No. 4] into my school. I give it the preference for the information which it gives on the subject of Physical Geography. The maps and questions in both works seem to me to be admirable. ALBERT SMEDES.

From J. W. GULICK, A. M., Prin. Male Academy, Goldsboro', N. C.:

GOLDSBORO', N. C.

I find your books are in use in many Schools in this section. The teachers speak in the highest terms of your Readers and Geographies, and of Peck's Gamut in particular. J. W. GULICK.

From Col. WM. BINGHAM, Prin. Bingham School, N. C.:

The introduction of so much valuable matter on the subjects of Physical Geography and Geology and in a form so simple and intelligible, makes it (Monteith's Intermediate Geography) in my judgment, a charming school book.

"We shall introduce Davies' Boardon, perhaps others of your books."

From Dr. CURRIE, Prin. Durham Academy, N. C.:

DURHAM, N. C.

I design introducing the present session McNally's Geography and Davies' University Arithmetic; also Boyd's Elements of English Composition. M. CURRIE.

From M. L. LITTLE, Esq., Prin. Pleasant Hill Seminary, Newton, N. C.:

NEWTON N. C.

Will introduce the University Arithmetic next term. Have examined it with much satisfaction. An admirable work. M. L. LITTLE,
Prin Pleasant Hill Seminary.

From Rev. S. IVEY, Prin Auburn Academy N. C.:

AUBURN, N. C.

Monteith's Geographies are excellent works, and I shall introduce them into my school.
STINCHON IVEY.

Prof. WM. A. GRAHAM, writing from Hillsboro' Military Academy, says:

The superior and durable style of binding of your works is a very great recommendation - one with which I have long been favorably impressed

From J. E. DUGGER, Esq., Prin. Male Academy, Warrenton, N. C.:

WARRENTON N. C.

"Davies' Mathematics" was adopted by me in 1858, and, up to this time, I have examined no works superior to them as a whole.

I have examined, with a view of introduction, "McNally's Geography" [No. 5] and "Peck's Gamut's Natural Philosophy." I consider them most excellent works, and shall put them in my boys' hands, at the earliest period. The Philosophy is truly an enticing work and must meet with universal commendation. J. E. DUGGER.

From W. C. KERR, State Geologist of N. C.

I regard Monteith's Physical and Intermediate Geography as one of the best books of its kind. It has several points of superiority over most primary Geographies; not the least of which, especially in the eyes of the juveniles, will be found in its attractive and very graphic illustrations. Another is the truly wonderful amount of substantial and really scientific information conveyed by these wood cuts, and the concise and lucid descriptions appended. But the chief excellence consists in this, that Geography is here treated from the only true and rational standpoint, viz: of Geology and Physical Geography; so that the learner arrives, by a natural and easy process, at the true conception of the earth as an organized whole; the designed result of successive changes and modifications, under the control of physical laws, constituting a true growth from a chaotic germ through manifold stages of progress, all pointing forward to its destined end as the home of living beings, and finally of man.

From Rev. C. D. BERNHEIM, Principal of Mount Ancora Female Seminary, Mount Pleasant, N. C.:

MT. PLEASANT, N. C.

I have introduced your National Series of Readers with great satisfaction to myself and to our teachers. We find them to be excellent, just suited to our purposes.

With Davies' Mathematical Series we have been long familiar, and can find no good reason for changing them.

In the Primary Department we have Monteith's Geographies, and in the advanced classes we have introduced Peck's Gamut, with much acceptance. C. D. BERNHEIM.

From Prof. JOS. H. FOX, President Stantonsburg Scientific High School, N. C.:

WILSON, N. C.

I have carefully examined the claims of the different Series of School Books most prominent before the public at this time. I have tested the merits of many of them in the school and lecture room, and feel no hesitancy in pronouncing the "National Series of Readers and Spellers" the best with which I am acquainted. I shall henceforth use no others in my school, and I shall furthermore use my influence to secure their adoption into other Seminaries in this section.

I use Davies' Mathematical Series in my school. I consider his works incomparably superior in many particulars, even to Stoddard's Course, which is saying a great deal. In fact, I consider it the highest encomium in my power to bestow.

I use Monteith's Series in my school. They afford a gradual but thorough and systematic progression, from the simplest rudiments of science, up to a development sufficiently exhaustive for all ordinary educational purposes. Their very superior merit has led me to discard ——— which stands next best on the list.

McNally's, the fifth book of the course, is decidedly the chef d'oeuvre of Geographies. No competent instructor can examine it for an hour without being struck with its extraordinary merit. J. H. FOY

From the Statesville, N. C. American, February 25th, 1869.

We would call the attention of Teachers in Western North Carolina to the valuable School publications of this firm, which are equal to any in the Union.

Messrs Barnes & Co., of New York, are now issuing large editions of these Standard School Books for the Southern states. The series consists of the National Primer, or Word Builder. National Elementary Speller. The National First 2nd 3rd, 4th and 5th Readers. This firm will allow no competition in the price of books published by them, which are among the best in the States.

From the Raleigh Daily Progress, Feb 20, 1869.

NATIONAL SECOND READER.—We have never examined a volume of its class which we could commend more cordially to parents and teachers.

From the N. C. Presbyterian, March 7, 1868.

NATIONAL FIRST READER.—We recommend it to all who desire a valuable book of instruction for beginners.

From the Wilmington, N. C. Daily Herald, 1868.

The National Series has attained probably a higher reputation than any other complete series of School Books now in existence.

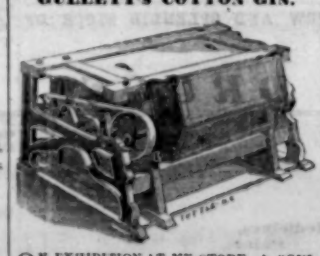
GULLETT'S COTTON GIN.



ON EXHIBITION AT MY STORE, A "GULLETT'S STEEL BRUSH GIN."

The Gin is of a very superior style of workmanship, gins more Cotton in a given time than any Gin of the same number of saws; picks the seed cleaner; leaves no motes or nap; does not waste the lint by throwing it over the walls of the room where it is being ginned; does not cut the lint, but brings it out in beautiful bats.

Planters desiring Gins would do well to buy one of Gullett's, as each one is guaranteed, and if it does not have the advantages, over other Gins, named in this advertisement, after fair trial, it will be no sale.

The "Gullett Gin" has been awarded the Premium at the several STATE FAIRS of Louisiana, Alabama and Mississippi.
